

House Resolution No. 73

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives welcome the opportunity to acknowledge the many significant achievements of one of this state's foremost leaders in the osteopathic medical community; and

Whereas, Carl G. Bynum, D.O., of Jefferson City, Missouri, will be formally installed as President of the Missouri Association of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons on Saturday, May 17, 2003; and

Whereas, this momentous event will highlight an extraordinary osteopathic medical career for Dr. Bynum, who has made important contributions to promote quality health care in this state as an osteopathic physician and as a dedicated leader within his professional organizations; and

Whereas, a 1975 graduate of the Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine, Dr. Bynum completed his post-graduate training at Tulsa Regional Medical Center in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and became Board Certified in Family Practice and Preventive Medicine; and

Whereas, Dr. Bynum has profoundly influenced the course of osteopathic medicine in leadership roles of the Missouri Association of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons, the professional organization for osteopathic physicians, on committees, including the Public Health and Executive Committees, House of Delegates, and as a Missouri Delegate to the American Osteopathic Association; and

Whereas, Dr. Bynum is also a valued member of the American Osteopathic Association, the American College of Osteopathic Family Physicians, and the Osage Valley Osteopathic Association; and

Whereas, Dr. Bynum maintained a practice in Jefferson City, Missouri, until 1997, when he became Principal Clinical Coordinator of the Missouri Patient Care Review Foundation, in which capacity he also continues his commitment and dedication to medicine, patients, and quality medical care for Missourians, particularly the Medicare beneficiaries:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, hereby unanimously join in extending our warmest congratulations and best wishes to Carl G. Bynum, D.O., as he continues to devote his efforts to meet the health care needs of our citizens in his leadership role as President of the Missouri Association of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Carl G. Bynum, D.O., as a measure of our esteem for him.
